Sermon Kit 2: The Man Born Blind — "The Man Who Never Asked"

THE SHORT VERSION

Read the manuscript once. Make it yours in the DOCX. Rehearse it aloud with the outline. Preach it. The slides and guide support the sermon; they are not the sermon.

WHAT'S IN THE FOLDER

- 00 · Start Here — this sheet.
- 01 · Preaching Manuscript — 6,559 words in two formats. PDF to read; DOCX to edit.
- 02 · One-Page Outline — movements, timings, lines to land, and the 50-minute cut.
- 03 · Small-Group Guide — eight questions and leader notes for a follow-up group.
- 04 · Slides (PPTX) — twelve 16:9 slides, editable in PowerPoint, Keynote, or Google Slides.
- 05 · Slides (PNG) — the same twelve slides as images for a projector or video.
- 06 · Preaching License — one page. Keep it with your order records.

MAKE IT YOURS

- Work in the DOCX, not the PDF. Change names, local details, and illustrations. Put your own stories in your own voice.
- Keep the evidence. The Pool of Siloam, the mud, the man's four confessions, and the parents' fear are doing theological work.
- Update the title page if you change the title or primary text.
- The deck is fully editable. All text is live. Georgia sets the headings and Candara the body; if either is missing on your machine, swap both for fonts you have.
- Read it aloud once before Sunday. If a sentence trips you, change it.

GUARDRAILS

- Do not turn John 9:3 into a formula: not every suffering is "for God's glory." Jesus says it about this man, in this story.
- Keep the archaeology in its place: the pool is real; the miracle remains a claim the text asks you to trust.
- Track the man's growing Christology. He is a witness still learning, not an instant theologian.
- Do not cartoon the Pharisees. The group was divided, and the parents' fear was real. The warning is for the church too.
- Protect the casting out, the finding, the worship, the invitation, and the silence.

TAKE IT TO THE PULPIT

MIN	SECTION
5	Introduction: The question in the street
7	The man nobody asked
8	Mud and the Sent Pool
6	The neighbors and the first testimony
8	The interrogations
8	Cast out and found
7	Application: What do you do with the light?
3	The invitation
5	Response and closing

57 minutes with the full response; 55–60 with normal variation. The manuscript is 6,559 words at about 125 words per minute.

If you have 50 minutes: Introduction to 4, Movement 1 to 5, Movement 2 to 6, Movement 4 to 7, Application to 6. Keep the pool, "One thing I know," and the finding. Never cut the man never asking, the mud and the pool, the casting out and finding, or the worship in the street.

THE LICENSE AT A GLANCE

One license covers one congregation or campus, any preacher on staff. It does not expire.

YOU MAY

- Preach and teach this sermon in one congregation or campus, as often as you like.
- Edit the manuscript for local context and your own voice.
- Record and stream it as part of normal services.
- Print the outline and guide for your preaching team and groups.
- Keep the files on a private, access-controlled system.

YOU MAY NOT

- Share the files with preachers outside your congregation.
- Post the manuscript publicly or sell it.
- Republish it as a standalone work, edited or not.
- Use one license across multiple campuses.
- Use the material at a paid conference or event without written permission.

Your edits are yours; the underlying manuscript remains the property of Silenced Saints. No attribution is required. The one-page license is the full grant; keep it with your order records.

TELL ME HOW IT WENT

Reply to the email that delivered this kit. Three questions, short answers:

1. Do you preach — pastor, lay preacher, teacher, or something else?
2. Which of the nine forgotten figures should I write next?
3. Where did you hear about this kit?

Tell me your preaching date and what you changed. I read every reply; it decides which kit comes next.

If this kit does not save you a full day of sermon prep, reply within 14 days for a refund.
